From the Desk of Reg... Prepare your heart

Dear Friends

In recent times young and old people have gone through heart surgery due to cholesterol problems or a blockage that caused such an operation to ensue. But the writer of Proverbs states, " the preparations of the heart belongs to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the Lord." (Proverbs 16 : 1).

The heart and the response of your prayer depends on how much you are willing to tame and prepare your heart in order to usher in the right reply from the Spirit of God. Given any one time in a week I will pray for around 300 people and on some of those lives that God has asked me to touch, I will not receive an answer for their life or the difficult circumstance they are going through, because they didn't have the right preparation with their heart. I could pray all day long for them and their circumstance but if the individual doesn't prepare their heart the answer gets delayed. Here's how you can get your heart right:

1. Every morning when you get up renew your dedication to God, start off with a clean slate with him.

2. Have a heart of repentance if you have been misled by engaging in certain matters.
3. Forgive those people who have come against you.
4. Bless everything that God has given you in life - the ups as well as the downs.
5. In the book of Romans it says, love covers over a multitude of sins. Love everyone regardless of how difficult they may be with you.

These ingredients have kept me over the years on the right path journeying with the Lord, receiving fresh impartation and the anointing to carry me through each day. Lastly, smile as much as you can in all circumstances. ☺

Getting Control Over Your Mind

Many people, organisations and religions, want your mind! They all want to tell you how to think, how to programme your mind, whether it be for success, for wealth, for control over your body—they all have formulas and processes for teaching you how to get control of your mind.

While most appear to offer some good advice, some of them are downright dangerous such as hypnotism and eastern-based meditation which encourage the opening of our mind and the “emptying” of our thoughts.

God has told us through scripture to have a mind like Christ (Phil 2:5) and that he has given us a spirit that enables us to have a sound mind. Many people are in institutions today because they do not have a “sound mind.”

How do we ensure that we maintain a sound mind and have a Christ-like mind. Two pointers come to my mind (!) and they are:

1. Bring every thought captive to the obedience of Jesus Christ (11 Cor 10:5).

We need to proactively tackle every thought that comes into our head that goes against our knowledge of God. Whenever thoughts come that we know not to be true, we simply grab it, give it to Jesus, and ask God to replace it with truth.

2. Meditate on the word.

There are many examples in the bible of people meditating: Isaac (Gen 24:69); Joshua (Josh 1:8); and of course David.

Psalms tells us to meditate on God's word; His works; His ways; His statutes, etc. etc.

When our mind is filled with the Word of God, we increase our discernment, which affects our actions and our decisions.

If anyone ever asks you to meditate on things that are NOT of the Lord, I highly encourage you to abstain from this practice.

God has given us control over our mind so we can do these things. Most important of all, when we do both these things, our minds will be protected from the twisting of truth that the enemy will try to throw at you.

Paul tells us what to think on – things that are true; noble, just, pure, and lovely (Phil 4:8) – these are the things that ensure a sound mind and a mind that can respond in obedience to Christ, NOT be swayed by the world, and what other's are telling you to think about.

Till next time,
Leanne

Joshua 1:8 (NKJ)

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.”
