From the Desk of Reg... Humility at the Cross

Dear Friends

In the book of Philippians Chapter 2 verse 8, it says "and being found in appearance as a man, He humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death on the cross". The cross signifies a very powerful message to every soul on this earth as we all know that Jesus went on the cross for us. Anyone can go to the cross but without humility Jesus' death would have not conquered the foes and the enemies of this earth. In humility He defeated the powers of demons, in humility He showed the compassion through the works of His healing ministry. In totality He displayed and manifested all forms and acts of humility in his relationships and ministry. He had the spirit to give more and beyond any person's comprehension. If the church is able grasp His form of humility it will transport the church into a new and richer dimension of the supernatural. Can I encourage you to seek the face of Jesus which displays infinite humility so that in your work, your family, your marriage, or across every sphere that you touch that it shall become a blessing to you.

CELEBRATE WITH THE FATHER

Does God love a celebration?

We all take time out to celebrate milestones in our lives. As I write this I am in Melbourne celebrating with my family for my mother's "three score and ten" birthday! That is, 70 years of age.

It's lovely to be able to stop and acknowledge the contribution people have made in your life. To me it's not about a birthday per se, it's about the opportunity to bless someone by celebrating their life and making a bit of a fuss of them. As humans these traditions are important parts of building and maintaining relationships. So what about God, does He love to celebrate with us?

It's interesting, but throughout the Old Testament God set up specific times of the year for the Jewish people to celebrate milestones – harvest; reconciliation; redemption and of course God's goodness. While these are no longer a mandatory part of the Christian journey, we certainly have the freedom to celebrate with God over anything that happens in our lives, our churches and our nations.

How do you like to celebrate? And do you celebrate with Jesus? Many times we can find ourselves praying and perhaps lamenting over things that aren't working out. Yet when a promise or a blessing has come our way, are we acknowledging that to those around us and most of all with God? God loves to celebrate with us.

One of the festivals that Jesus asked us to celebrate was the Passover season – His Resurrection.

As we enter into this time, we are certainly sobered at the thought of Christ dying on the cross and all he went through to. However, Jesus reminds us that he is the "resurrection and the life" (John 11:25) – surely that is cause for great celebration! No other god or person can offer us this.

He tells us that he has overcome the world and death has lost its sting.

Will you join me in telling those around you to celebrate what Jesus has to offer and letting them know what He has done in your own life?

Till next time, Leanne

Ezekiel 22: 30

New King James Version

'So I sought for a man among them, who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found no one.'

Pastor Frank Hultgren, during his guest appearances, has been encouraging the church to stand in the gap for Perth and Australia, for us to be intercessors for our land.

Let us take up this cause, stand in the gap and pray for our land!
