FROM THE DESK OF REG: A BLESSED YEAR

Firstly I want to wish you all a very blessed New Year. Isaiah Ch 43 v 18-19 says, "Do not remember the former things, Nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing. Now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it?"

For many of us 2011 has been a year of mixed blessings; within this country we have seen natural disasters taking place and yet others were struggling in their own journey with God. Let's all put that behind us and walk forward towards what God has in store for us. God wants us to make good choices in life, choices which will make us great in the sight of Him.

Each decision determines the outcome of the goal that we are aiming for.

Caryn & Reg Morais, Pastor & Evangelist

Remembering Jesus on the Cross of Calvary with the choice that He had to make for the entire human race is hard for us to fully comprehend. But in the end it paid us off since salvation comes through His name.

Secondly, the attitude that we bear with our friends, family or work colleagues will also make the difference in your life. If you want your prayers to be answered this year by God, be sure your attitude is in the right order. Attitudes will either make or break you. The attitude that Jesus had at the garden of Gethsemane is one of humility and submission to the Father's will. Most of us claim to know everything but we know so very little. Why can't we this year obtain a heart of humility. Try to achieve all the results that you ask for by claiming it through submission.

Thirdly, keep going in your current circumstances - some will feel at this time that you are carrying 2011 burdens into 2012, but in a short while it will come to an end. Persistence, perseverance and endurance will give you the ultimate victory.

Anoint the World,
Reg

NEW YEAR' S RESOLUTIONS

I saw a recent church sign that said "May your troubles be as short as your new year's resolutions." I had to chuckle to myself because many people will acknowledge that their new year's resolutions are usually done and dusted by week one of the new year.

Many of us looking to the new year with optimism – forgetting what is behind and reaching forward to what is ahead (Phil 3:13) – but are new year's resolutions the way to do it? Many resolutions are based on personal discipline and effort to either stop or start doing something. This is why when we try to do things in our own will power and self-discipline we are unlikely to be able to sustain that for an extended period of time. This can then lead to disappointment in ourselves or at worst condemnation. What does God encourage us to use to maintain our focus and our goals for 2012?

We find the answer in Zech 4:6 "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the Lord of Hosts. What a great promise. When we submit all areas of our life to God's empowering spirit, all things are possible! Whether we want to look at the areas of health (including weight and diet) or bad habits (like TV or computer games) God's spirit is what will sustain you and allow you to be successful.

Our power, our might is only temporary at best. Whereas God's spirit is sustaining when we stay connected to Him. As humans we will fall off the band wagon from time to time, but reach back out to God and He will gladly pick you up and get you back on the path of success.

God promises us plans that will prosper, not hurt or harm us. Many prophets around the world have prophesied an abundant year for God's children despite many global problems that will continue to plague certain nations in the world. How resolved are you in 2012 to stay connected to God and receive this covering from heaven? A resolution well worth keeping don't you think? God bless you for an awesome year.

Until next time, Leanne
